Upward Bound is a Tobacco, Drug, and Alcohol-Free Environment

100% Funded by two Title IV grants from the US Department of Education totaling $799,156 (Pendleton/Pocahontas $309,505 and Randolph/Barbour/Tucker $489,651), project services are free to eligible students. Upward Bound is an Equal Opportunity in Education project and part of Davis and Elkins College which does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, national or ethnic origin, creed, ancestry, marital/family status, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, gender expression, pregnancy, religion, age, disability or blindness, or any other characteristic protected by local, state or federal law, to include Title VI, Title VII, Title IX, Section 504, and the Age Discrimination Act, in the administration of its admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, educational programs, employment, athletic programs, co-curricular activities, or other College administered programs. D&E's nondiscrimination policies may be accessed at <https://www.dewv.edu/title-ix/>. For inquiries about the application of these laws in D&E's programs and activities or to file a report, contact the Title IX Coordinator at 100 Campus Drive, Elkins, WV, detitleix@dewv.edu, or 304-621-1316.

One of America's federally funded TRIO Programs.
